LOCALS.

There are no idlemen in Red River today.

School opened up last Monday again after five days vacation.

The Christmas candy at Uncle Steve's is just as sweet now as ever.

Close Brandenburg made Questa a business visit the first of the week.

Those five cent cigars at the Postoffice are becoming very popular.

Springer is to have a fine opera house. Work has commenced on the foundation already.

The finest line of Candy at Uncle Steve's that has ever been brought into camp.

E. C. Enderman is making arrangements to build an arrostra in the spring on the Nashville.

The Postoffice will be closed New Year's between the hours of 10:30 o'clock a.m., and 3:30 p.m.

The assessment work on the Mineral King is being completed this week, with J. L. Cummins in charge.

R. W. Penn and J. M. Mead are taking some fine ore out of the lone mining property on Mound mountain.

New Year's night a dragon will be held at the Blue Front building. Come one and all and enjoy a pleasant evening.

The owners of the Stella group of mining claims are having their annual work done under the management of J. L. Bigelow.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Mead and daughter Esther, A. D. Luce and A. M. Ewing, spent Christmas at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Luce.

If this weather keeps up much longer, the Prospector will begin advertising Red River as the finest winter resort in the world.

Mr. W. D. Connor and son have and have developing the property on Copper mountain. This step off is the near Copper mine property, and is in a void which is about.

Tom LaBeam of Denver, arrived in town Tuesday evening, to look after the work on the Stella group of claims up Pioneer. Mr. LaBeam makes his annual visit to camp in the interest of Denver parties who own the above group of claims.

A big Christmas dinner was served at the home of Mrs. C. G. Cleland. The invited guest who sat down to the tables besides Mrs. Cleland, Miss Mand, Charles and Marcelline, were Mrs. George Mallette and children, George Turner of Terro, Colo., and F. O. Stevens.

Thursday evening the people of Red River are invited to meet at the school house to organize a literary society and also to keep watch until the Old Year dies and the New Year come to life. Music by the men and women entertain the audience.

J. L. Bigelow made a business trip to Questa the last of the week.

The dance Christmas night was an enjoyable affair to all those that attended.

T. A. Nelson is finishing the assessment of work on the Reno mining property up Red cabin.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Connor and daughter Miss Mandie, attended the dance Christmas night.

Geo. D. Joshua has a large force of men at work on the Copper King mining claims, just across the river from the post office on Copper mountain.

The beautiful programmes for the Christmas entertainment were printed at the Prospector office and were presented to the audience by the office force consisting of Miss Mand Cleland and F. O. Stevens.

A. E. Eckles came in last week from Alamosa to begin development work on the Brown Palace up Mallette creek. This property is one among the best claims as the lowest assay on the hill carries $10 in precious metals. Mr. Eckles expects to place an arrostra on the property this spring.

If all the old bushels of Red River, Elizabethtown or Twining, who are unfortunately inclined and are open for an engagement will notify the editor of the Prospector, he will be pleased to insert the same in his paper free of charge. Now, boys, the year 1904 is leap year and there may be a show for you yet if you will only encourage the fair maidens.

Married, on December 20, 1903, at the Mission home, Mr. Ralph E. Pierce and Miss Grace Fowler, both of Baton, Rev. E. M. Merrill conducting the ceremony. Baton Rouge. Miss Fowler with her parents were formerly residents of this place and her many Red River friends wish her a long and happy life and congratulate Mr. Pierce in winning such a lovely lady for a life companion.

Christmas Eve in Red River.

Christmas Eve 1903, will long be remembered by the people of Red River, as the entertainment and supper was fine and everyone enjoyed themselves. The people had subscribed $41.80 toward the tree and refreshment and the many good citizens of our camp furnished sandwich and cake that would tempt the appetite of the most delicate of epicures.
